

The Prince of Peace

December 19, 2021

Isaiah 9:6, Matthew 10:32, Romans 8:6

Hundreds of years before Jesus was born, Isaiah talked about Jesus and called Him the "Prince of Peace"

So, what is peace? -- We usually think of Peace as the absence of war

What produces peace in the spirit usually produces turmoil in the flesh

What produces peace in the flesh usually produces turmoil in the spirit

Rom 8:6 "The mind of a sinful man is death, but the mind of a man controlled by the spirit is Life and Peace. -- You can't have true peace without the Prince of Peace, because peace is a fruit of the spirit.

So how is Christ the Prince of Peace?

A. He is the One who makes peace with _____ possible.

1. In our sinful state, we are _____ with God (Romans 5:10).
2. Therefore, Jesus is the Prince of Peace or the peace _____ between a holy God and a sinful man.

B. He is the One who makes peace with _____ possible

1. There is no more guilt
2. Jesus was at peace in who He was. And you can have _____ and confidence in who you are also. You belong to Him. There is a lot of peace in knowing who you are and where you stand.
3. Today there is not much peace, because there is an identity crises. We don't know who we are, and we don't know _____ we are.

C. He is the One who makes peace with _____ possible

1. And the fruit of the spirit are Love, Joy, Peace... They are reflections of His presence in us. And, although their deepest, most vital result is to have us live in love, joy, and peace with God, they can't help but to _____ into our relationships with other people.

Conclusion:

Is there peace in your life? Why or why not? Which area do you not have peace? Ask the Prince of Peace to help you with that today.
